

I believe that the FCC must step in on the Sinclair problem. It's obvious that Sinclair has a huge stake in the outcome of this election, and they are clearly breaking the law by ignoring their obligation to provide fair airtime to the presidential candidates.